

Ok, so this is probably going to be the worst lounge review I've ever done, but I was more focused on rebooking, so...

Lounge opens at 7:00, though I got in at 6:50. The lounge dragon (literally) scanned my one-time pass and I entered...

There was a customer rebooking desk immediately upstairs, and I quickly began rebooking.

I took pictures of the breakfast spread. Note that it's non-exhausted, remember how limited I was in time after rebooking?

So yeah, sorry for the lack of photos. I'm hoping I'll be able to come back and give a better review, because so far, I've seen no pictures of the club.
